Synopsis

Charlie Bone is a young boy with a secret. He has the power to see ghosts, talk to animals, and move objects with his mind. But Charlie doesn't know anything about his magical powers, or why he has them. All he knows is that he's different, and that his family doesn't seem to want to talk about it.

When Charlie's grandmother dies, he discovers a mysterious amulet that belonged to his great-grandfather, the Red King. The amulet unlocks a hidden world of magic and danger, and Charlie soon finds himself caught up in a battle between good and evil.

Charlie must learn to control his powers and decide where he belongs. Will he join the forces of good and fight against the evil Red King? Or will he succumb to the lure of power and become something he's not?

Review

Charlie Bone and the Invisible Boy is a spellbinding adventure that will keep readers of all ages on the edge of their seats. Jenny Nimmo has created a rich and imaginative world full of magic, mystery, and adventure.
