Synopsis

In a world of darkness and deception, a young blind man named Saylok must learn to navigate a treacherous path. Cursed with blindness from birth, Saylok has spent his life isolated and alone. But when his village is attacked by a ruthless army, he is forced to flee into the unknown.

Accompanied by a mysterious woman named Anya, Saylok embarks on a quest to find a way to restore his sight. Along the way, he must confront his own fears and doubts, and learn to trust those who offer him help. But as he delves deeper into the secrets of his past, he discovers that the darkness that surrounds him is not just physical, but something far more sinister.
