World Facts Special Edition is the perfect Valentine's Day gift for your significant other, friend, or family member. This beautifully illustrated book is packed with over 1,000 fascinating and romantic facts about the world, from the history of Valentine's Day to the most romantic places on Earth.

Discover the Most Romantic Facts About the World

Did you know that the ancient Romans celebrated a festival called Lupercalia in honor of the god of fertility? During this festival, men would draw the names of women from a jar and then pair up with them for the year. This tradition is believed to be the origin of our modern-day Valentine's Day.

Or how about this: in Japan, Valentine's Day is primarily celebrated by women giving chocolates to men. These chocolates are often carefully chosen and wrapped, and they can range from simple gifts to elaborate works of art.

These are just a few of the many fascinating facts you'll discover in World Facts Special Edition. This book is a treasure trove of romantic trivia that will spark your imagination and make your Valentine's Day celebration even more special.

Create Lasting Memories with Your Loved One

Valentine's Day is a time to connect with your loved ones and create lasting memories. World Facts Special Edition can help you do just that. This book is perfect for reading together, sharing your favorite facts, and reminiscing about your own love story.
